PITTSBURGERS CONFIDENT SHAM-ROCK WILL NOT LIFT THE CUP.

Put Up $250,000 Against $150,000 British Money that Sir Thomas Lip-

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 3 .- The great in-English syndicate, represented by Walter J. Kingsley, of London, and a group of patriotic Pittsburgers, represented by posited in the hands of the stakeholder, Mrs. W. G. Jameson, Mr. Watson, Mr. Mr. Kingsley turning over $150,000 in Brit- | Denney, Mr. Ratsey and Commodore Hillish bank notes and Mr. Mustin giving a certified check for $250,000. What is said to be the greatest bet in history was thus successfully consummated. Both Mr. Mustin and Mr. Kingsley arrived in Pittsburg this morning, Mr. Mustin coming from Asbury Park and Mr. Kings- this afternoon after she had raced over a ley from New York. Mr. Mustin promptly put Mr. Kingsley in communication with | fleet of fishermen ten miles on a course of his principals, who were speedily con- twenty-five miles. As the name of Darr, Moore & Brydon of this port, and it was like a thoroughbred had been used repeatedly without warrant in the press of the country as the probable stakeholder, a conference was held in the berth to await the disposition of her owner. office of that firm. The partners went into the matter and decided that as theirs was an investment business and stakeholding not in their line, they must decline to hold the stakes. They did, however, suggest the name of a citizen prominent in financial circles, and who is known as far as London, as a possible stakeholder. This gentleman when approached consented to become stakeholder on the express condition that his name should be withheld from the public, as he does not care to share in the publicity now enjoyed by those Pittsburgers who crossed in the Deutschland. The bank notes and the check were carefully gone over and pronounced satisfactory. Mr. Kingsley's credentials were examined with the same result. The stake is to be paid within one week after the concluding race, the place of meeting to be New York. The wager is simply $150,000 to $250,000 that Shamrock lifts the cup. There are no conditions as to accident. Both Mr. Mustin and Mr. Kingsley, the brokers for their respective syndicates, will receive handsome commissions. Mr. Kingsley is to get 5 per cent. of the whole amount in case the Shamrock wins and 21/2 per cent. of $150,000 in the event of her losing. Mr. Mustin's compensation for his share in the arrangement of the bet is 5 per cent. of $250,000, which was paid to him as soon as the wager was consummated this after-

The name of the stakeholder is one closely guarded secret in the bet. The names of the men composing the syndicate is also kept from the public. "They are all wellthe troops of General Washington and Genknown Pittsburg gentlemen," said Mr. Mustin, "but for obvious reasons their names are being withheld. They are backing the American boat because they anticipate another victory for the Yankee skippers and look on the matter with the eye of business men. However, if the Englishman should take the cup away they would not turn a hair.
